VERBAL REPORTS

1. MORGAN HILL SKATE PARK UPDATES

Anne Beale, Park & Trees Supervisor for the City of Morgan Hill, informed the committee that four of the original 11 structures were removed from the Skate Park. The wood framing and support structures are in need of repair; the top platforms no longer have side railings. The skate park has been deemed unsafe due to the vandalism. The total price estimate for the skate park repair is $19,300. The city slowly will remove unsafe structures. Mori Struve asked YAC to help save the skate park by considering a fundraising event for the park. YAC could get together with the local skate shops to bring in professional skaters and have an event at the skate park. YAC members will work on new fundraiser ideas for the new fiscal year 2005-2006

2. LIBRARY - READING PROGRAM - REPORT

Staff Schoenduve reported that the teen summer reading program started June 1st. Teens who read 5 books by August 19th will receive a gift certificate of $10 from Bookmart or Anime 101 & Manga. Staff Schoenduve passed out a registration packet to all YAC Members present given by Marianne Primore, Teen Librarian.

3. NEIGHBORHOOD CONNECTION PROJECT REPORT. BAND CONCERT ON JUNE 4TH, FROM 4 TO 8PM & CULTURAL DANCE SHOW ON SUN, OCT 2, 2005

Member Bañuelos reported that the Roofless Band Concert was a success; with a crowd of about 200 people going in & out. YAC made $300 from candy and food sales. Member Soult suggested that YAC should put on a summer concert series. Member England suggested that YAC include a wider range of music genres at the next concert. Staff Schoenduve reported that the date, October 2nd, for the Cultural Dance Show is confirmed.

4. COMMUNITY SERVICES REPORT

Member Patel and Soult will take over the community service project for the new fiscal year.

5. COMMUNITY CONVERSATION PRESENTATION

Member Soult reported that the YAC training for community conversations would be open to the public. YAC asked that this item be moved to business for the next meeting.

6. YAC RECRUITMENT REPORT. TERMS EXPIRING JUNE 30, 2005

Staff Schoenduve reported that six board members and five associate members would be leaving after their term expires. June 1st was the last day to apply for a YAC board or associate position. Staff Schoenduve suggested for the new fiscal year 05-06 to do short presentations about the YAC, government organization, at schools in town by YAC Members and spread the word about their events.
